

GenesisCare consumer representative application form

About GenesisCare

GenesisCare is an organisation of highly trained healthcare professionals and support staff designing innovative treatments and care for people with cancer and heart disease.

Across the world, GenesisCare have more than 440 centres. Every year our team sees more than 400,000 people globally.

GenesisCare's purpose is to design care experiences that get the best possible life outcomes. To give you high-quality care that's available where and when you need it and is tailored to your particular needs.

About our consumer program

We design care with patients and carers who are part of our consumer panel and committee. Our consumers participate in our projects and initiatives to give consumers a voice and to help us make better decisions – this ensures we deliver on our promise of providing patient-centred care. All consumers volunteer their time to contribute on an ad hoc basis, as required.

You are invited to join our consumer panel or committee by completing this form. The questions in this form tell us a bit about you and why you'd like to be a GenesisCare consumer representative. If your application is successful we'll use this information to write a short biography to share on our website.

Sample biography

Sue is a survivor of three separate incidences of oral cancer so is an experienced recipient of a range of cancer services. Sue believes in a holistic approach to oncology treatment, respecting all the physical and emotional needs of the patient.

Sue spent many her professional life working in industrial relations and workplace health promotion. She has a science degree and spent her early career in a research lab. This background makes Sue well placed to work closely with our clinical research team as a consumer representative.
